

Name of award

The Hoare Family Award

Eligibility criteria

Open to students studying in the area of Social Sciences

Duration

1 Year

Value

Up to £5,000

Number of awards

1

About the donor

The Golden Bottle Trust was established in 1985 by the Partners of C. Hoare & Company whose Chief Executive is Alexander Hoare. The Golden Bottle Trust has a history of supporting a wide range of causes that include the arts, community, education, environment and wildlife, health and microfinance and the developing world. The Trust is a private foundation supported by a renowned financial institution steeped in tradition and history. C. Hoare & Co is the oldest privately run family bank in the United Kingdom. It was founded by Richard Hoare in the City of London in 1672.