About the donor The Award was established by Mrs Chen Jingxia and her late husband Mr Wei Dong. The Wei Oxford Award was created in early 2008 just a few months before Mr Wei's sudden death in China. Mr Wei was the founder of the Yongjin financial group in China and was a well-respected business leader. He and his wife gave generously to many educational charities and causes. The Award is a tribute to Mr Wei Dong and his family's commitment to educational initiatives in China.
